Free Culture-Lawrence Lessig 2016-07-30 Lawrence Lessig, “the most important thinker on intellectual property in the Internet era”, masterfully argues that never before in human history has the power to control creative progress been so concentrated in the hands of the powerful few, the so-called Big Media. Never before have the cultural powers- that-be been able to exert such control over what we can and can’t do with the culture around us. Our society defends free markets and free speech; why then does it permit such top-down control? To lose our long tradition of free culture, Lawrence Lessig shows us, is to lose our freedom to create, our freedom to build, and, ultimately, our freedom to imagine.

Who Killed Buster??-Edward Bufala 2009-01-23 If you are reading this now, you have the book I have written in your hands. If you choose to read this book you will actually be reading two stories, both stories are true. Remember that old cliché that the truth is sometimes stranger than fiction? Well this just happens to be stranger than fiction. You can't make this stuff up. Part one of my story is about Buster's life. And it was a rough start, almost from day one, which was November 2", 1942. It was if he was angry from his very first day on this earth. Starting with his eviction from 1 grade to his unsuccessful one day attendance at a Catholic school, to his one year stay at Philadelphia Children's Hospital for Rheumatic Fever, which left him with heart damage, I'd say that was a rough start, wouldn't you? Some may have described Buster as an angry, troubled young boy. That couldn't be farther from the truth I decided later on that Buster wasn't angry at all. He was just always trying to prove that he could be anythkg that he wanted to be. The fact was that he knew what he wanted to be at a very young age, he knew how he planned to get there, and he was determined to achieve his goals at any cost and no one was going to stop him. I talk about Buster's family and friends and how they may have influenced or had an impact on his life decisions, which ultimately led to his untimely death on October 8th, 1976. Part two of my book is the bizarre part of his story. If you don't find part one interesting enough, I suggest that you skip to part two. I guarantee you'll find it more interesting. There are several rumors as to why someone thought Buster had to die, we just don't know which is true or if there could be another reason that we don't know about. His young widowed wife Carol has spun many tales over the past years and truthfully we don't know what is true and what is a product of her imagination. She has told us about who the killers are and how the killers themselves end up murdered. She tells us how crooked the Las Vegas detectives investigating the murder are and how they try to implicate her own family. This goes on for over 30 years and we still don't know the truth. After reading this story, you can decide for yourself what is true and what is not, if you choose to. The problem is, unless you were there, you will have the same problem that I have to this day. I don't know why he had to die and I don't know who did it.

Costa Rica-International Monetary Fund. Western Hemisphere Dept. 2021-03-01 Costa Rica has been hit hard by the COVID-19 pandemic, notwithstanding the authorities' proactive policy response and the country's well-established universal healthcare system. The socio-economic impact has been significant, exacerbating an already fragile outlook and pre-existing imbalances, with a significant toll on economic activity and unemployment—especially among women and the young. The shock has further weakened the country's fiscal position, undermining the expected yields from the ambitious fiscal reform launched in late 2018, and generated a large financing gap. Financial support through the Fund's Rapid Financing Instrument (RFI) in 2020 provided temporary relief to respond to the pandemic, including by catalyzing financial assistance from other official partners, but financing needs remain sizable over the medium term.
