The Mystics of Reyesville-Corinne Chacon 2006-11 In the captivating novel The Mystics of Reyesville, the first in a series celebrating the healing mysteries of Mexican culture, a displaced executive is called back to her hometown, where she must confront past relationships and haunting memories before moving forward with her life. After her godmother passes away, Marlana Rivera returns to Reyesville, Texas, a town she fled years ago. She reconnects with old friends, but Anna, her godmother's spiritual protégé, still bears a grudge against Marlana over their shattered romance. To make matters worse, Marlana's uncle is planning a new and unwanted career for her, and her father is turning over the family business to a cousin who may not be trustworthy. Marlana sees the connections between power, land, and money in this small Texas town, and she is tempted to take advantage of the opportunities that present themselves. But Reyesville is different-it's on the Map of Emotions, a world with its own rules and its own guides. Marlana never counted on the mystics of Reyesville-or the possibility that she might be one of them.

The Other Side of Paradise-Staceyann Chin 2009-04-14 No one knew Staceyann's mother was pregnant until a dangerously small baby was born on the floor of her grandmother's house in Lottery, Jamaica, on Christmas Day. Staceyann's mother did not want her, and her father was not present. No one, except her grandmother, thought Staceyann would survive. It was her grandmother who nurtured and protected and provided for Staceyann and her older brother in the early years. But when the three were separated, Staceyann was thrust, alone, into an unfamiliar and dysfunctional home in Paradise, Jamaica. There, she faced far greater troubles than absent parents. So, armed with a fierce determination and uncommon intelligence, she discovered a way to break out of this harshly unforgiving world. Staceyann Chin, acclaimed and iconic performance artist, now brings her extraordinary talents to the page in a brave, lyrical, and fiercely candid memoir about growing up in Jamaica. She plumbs tender and unsettling memories as she writes about drifting from one home to the next, coming out as a lesbian, and finding the man she believes to be her father and ultimately her voice. Hers is an unforgettable story told with grace, humor, and courage.

Come in at the Door-William March 2015-02-28 His debut novel, Company K, introduced William March to the reading public as a gifted writer of modern fiction. Of that World War I classic Graham Greene wrote: "It is the only war book I have read which has found a new form to fit the novelty of the protest. The prose is bare, lucid, without literary echoes." After Company K, March brought his same unerring style to a cycle of novels and short stories his "Pearl County" series inspired in part by his childhood in the vicinity of Mobile, Alabama. Come In at the Door is the first novel in that series. Before dawn one morning, little Chester is taken by his nurse, his father's mistress, to the courthouse in Athlestan, a county seat in the Deep South. A sensitive and impressionable boy, Chester watches in horror while one of his father's mixed-race servants is hanged as punishment for killing a hunchback he believed had laid a "conjure" on him. The apathy of the townspeople toward the servant's suffering and execution play a vital part in Chester's fascinating development. Throughout his conventional childhood and rambunctious manhood in a port town, the gruesome memory of the Athlestan gallows hovers just below the surface of his mind. He recalls the gruesome details only at his father's death, when the book sweeps forward to its shattering denouement.

Otherworld Tales, Volume Two-Yasmine Galenorn 2019-10-02 This anthology contains the previously published novellas: MOONSWEPT: Almost everyone remembers their first love. And so, we take a peek back at the D'Artigo sisters' first loves in three short stories. Because long before Smoky, Morio, and Trillian came into her life, Camille's heart belonged to her cousin Shamas. And before Shade, Delilah was learning what love meant from her all-too human detective. And Menolly wasn't always a vampire...at one time, she had dreams of creating a family with a man who taught her to respect herself and never settle for anyone who tore her down. Forbidden Love: Camille and Shamas secretly plan their future together, until his envy over her connection to the Moon Mother, and an attempt at an arranged marriage get in the way. Im-Purrfect Match: Delilah never expected to fall for Chase Johnson. But one night, while searching for information on a man named Tom Lane, the werecat and the detective discover an unexpected attraction. Shadows of Love: Menolly wasn't always a vampire. And once, long ago in Otherworld, a gentleman farmer taught her that she should never settle in matters of the heart. EARTHBOUND: When Camille, Menolly, and Delilah D'Artigo are reassigned Earthside, they have no clue of what to expect. Getting situated in a new world, figuring out where they're going to live, what they're going to do, is an adventure in itself. Return the beginning, as the D'Artigo Sisters walk through the portals to their new home for the very first time. KNIGHT MAGIC: Camille journeys to Otherworld on a quest to find the last member of the Keraastar Knights. There, she must face one of the ancient Fae Lords who stands between her and the key to fulfilling her destiny. And there, she also discovers that her past has come full circle to meet her future. This novelette takes place between Moon Shimmers, book 19 of the Otherworld Series, and the upcoming Harvest Song, book 20.

The Quick and the Rest-Frank Nacozy 2013-12-30 At the age of five, Tony Huarte receives a prophesy from an erotic gypsy woman a birthmark, he is told, reveals that he has a special gift of quickness. Pilar, the sensuous, spell-casting fortune-teller, is also a world-class flamingo dancer. She takes Tony under her wing and introduces him to 40s jazz music, inspiring his lifetime love of jazz. As early as ten, Tonys elite quickness and determination, spurred on by Pilar and his uncle Pablo, enable him to have early triumphs in the youth boxing tournaments. Set against the 50s - 80s jazz scene, The Quick and The Rest is a 120,000 word fiction novel. It is the chronicle of a young boy of simple emigrant parents who discovers that he is gifted with elite reactions and hand-eye coordination. His profession as a boxer and the aftermath take him and his boyhood football companion Charlie on a wild odyssey through the brutal championship fights, the bright lights of the jazz world, the dangerous contacts with criminals, the adventure of an epic sail, and the encounters with many stunning, but problematic, women. Tonys penchant and magnet for violence outside the ring leave him with a smashed right hand, several dead men and his challenge for the top of the professional boxing world severely, as well as his physical and mental well-being, jeopardized. These violent engagements are, for the most part, the result of his obsession with highly desirable women and the fast living that accompany them.

Queen Victoria-Richard Rivington Holmes 2017-02-27 Biographer Richard Holmes moves seamlessly through Queen Victoria's life from her lonely childhood, to her intrepid early years as an unmarried queen, through the heady days of betrothal, the loving years of marriage and finally to her heart-wrenching life as a widow. His lively narrative incorporates many fascinating snippets from Queen Victoria's personal diaries and correspondence, creating a rare glimpse into the monarch's personal tastes and characteristics.

Feydeau Plays: 2-Georges Feydeau 2014-03-20 Kenneth McLeish's definitive translations of the most successful French dramatist of the Belle Epoque Georges Feydeau (1862-1921) was the most successful French dramatist of the belle epoque and is now widely regarded as one of the greatest of farce-writers. His series of dazzling hits matched high-speed action and dialogue with ingenious plotting. Reaching the heights of farcical lunacy, his plays nevertheless contain touches of barbed social comment and allowed him to mention subjects which would have provoked outrage in the hands of more serious dramatists. This volume of new, sparkling translations by Kenneth McLeish contains two plays from the peak of his career, The Girl from Maxim 's and She's All Yours (La Main Passe), together with an early work, Jailbird (Gibier de potence).

You Have the Right to Remain Puzzled-Parnell Hall 2008-12-10 When Benny Southstreet, a small-time hustler with a big-time gift for constructing crosswords, accuses Cora of stealing one of his creations, it's clearly a case of mistaken identity...until Cora's own attorney files a plagiarism suit against her. To add to the enigma, when Benny is found dead, the police charge Cora with his murder! At the heart of the matter is the not-so-little white lie Cora has been living for years: assuming the grandmotherly public face of her publicity-shy niece Sherry, who designs crossword puzzles and publishes them under Cora's name—aka the Puzzle Lady. It turns out that Sherry's and Benny's cruciverbalist paths had recently crossed, resulting in the current incriminating conundrum. As if Sherry's wedding engagement jitters and a nasty battle over missing antique chairs weren't enough to deal with, now Cora has to solve the ultimate mystery: how to keep the secret of her identity without losing her life. Because not only does all evidence point to Cora, but someone seems to want her dead. It looks like a riddle with no answer. Luckily for Cora and Sherry, that's their favorite kind!

Gendered Words-Fei-wen Lui 2015 This is the first ethnography to explore the world's only gender-defined and now disappearing 'women's script', known as nüshu, script circulated exclusively in Jiangyong County of Hunan Province in south China. Based on twenty years of fieldwork conducted since 1992, this book uses nüshu in conjunction with its affiliated singing tradition nüge (women's song), complemented by a life narrative approach, to unfold peasant women's lifeworlds that constitute a summation of shifting realities that engage women's voice (sentiments and perspectives), expression/performance, and practice.

My Buff Doctor (Book 10)-The Buffness Diaries 2020-11-30 Tragedy struck Damon Okawmmay when he lost his first love in a car accident while in med-school. Since then he's put his energy into being the best pediatric surgeon Texas has ever seen. Still trying to mend his broken heart, he meets a woman with similar pain, Zara Ca'Pella. "I'm sorry, the test came back positive" Zara's dreams of having a child of her own are cut short when her doctor informs her that her body won't be able to carry a child. Just as she gives up hope, she meets an Okawmmay. Sharing similar experiences brings them closer together. When his father, Hawk Okawmmay gets a tip that a mission Damon was meant to complete 15 years ago wasn't completed, he starts to find out why. What happens when Damon finds out that his first love was actually murdered? Will Zara leave when she finds out that Damon is apart of the African Mafia? Twist and turns may break your bond, but the truth will set you free. Whatever happened to Jason and Ariel? Jason Steele Okawmmay was married when he met Ariel Vinte. Their love affair lasted for several months. After hopes that he'd leave his cheating wife, she learns that it wasn't that simple for the father of 3. Now that time has passed, Jason Okawmmay wants the woman whom he fell in love with back and he'll do anything to accomplish that goal.

My Mother's Voice-Kay Mouradian 2013-01-31 Researching through volumes in several libraries and archives in the United States, author Kay Mouradian visited the village in Turkey where her mother and her mother's family, along with twenty-five thousand other Armenians, were forced to leave their homes. Traveling over the same deportation route to the deserts of Syria where more than a million Armenians perished, the author became acutely aware of the suffering of her mother's generation and the lingering sense of injustice they carried. Like the 6 million Jewish people lost in the Holocaust, Armenians lost an incredibly vibrant, successful, and valuable gene pool of more than a million as a result of the Armenian genocide. This story of fourteen-year-old Flora Munushian, the author's mother, brings an epic chapter in Armenian history to life and takes it to heart. Flora's incredible story honors her people with dignity and personifies the human spirit of hope, love, and justice. Flora's voice is that of all the victims and survivors of the Armenian Genocide, a story that must not be forgotten. "I am my mother's voice," says Dr. Mouradian, "and this is her story."

White's Corner-John Barnshaw 2010-08-16 Set during 1942-45 White's Corner tells of a generation of youths, many of whose hopes and dreams were shattered by the War. Brenda, originally from Belfast, marries a Cardiff born sea-going deck officer, and settles in Hebburn, North East England, where they buy the very old South Eastern Hotel (Souie) in 1932. The Souie's story is told, along with that of the factory the book takes its name from. The March 1944 National Apprentices' Strike is covered (a serious action with a War on) which created schisms between apprentices that lasted until death in some cases. White's Corner has many interesting characters, including the Kelly family - consisting of eight siblings, four of whom are White's Marine Engineering Co apprentices. The sequel follows the lives of these characters after the War. The reader will laugh out loud at the accounts of apprenticeship escapades, and be moved by the many situations that arise. Every human emotion occurs within its tales.

A Heart Trace Through the Digital World-Haitao Tang 2009-03-01 A Heart Trace through the Digital World is a beautifully written and inspiring account of a man's experience and resolution of his wife's battle with cancer. Haitao Tang chronicles his experiences, his fears, and his sorrow while he and his wife worked diligently side by side through her disease. In the impersonal, digital world we have created, Haitao's message shines as a living example of how we all must reconnect in a human way to not only give voice to those who suffer from chronic or terminal illnesses but to recognize them as a valued and respected members of society. Tang and his wife, both scientists, discovered the power of positive thinking, the effect of active fighting with a terminal illness, the huge value of treasuring life until the last moment, and the great importance of sharing their knowledge with others who may be going through the physical and emotional pain of a terminal illness. Tang's poignant and intelligent narration will encourage you to recognize the humanness in all of us and our responsibility to respect our differences and embrace our common bond-we are mortals in a changing world.Through sharing our experiences we become immortal as we touch another life. Haitao Tang is a scientist and engineer living in Helsinki, Finland. A Heart Trace through the Digital World is his first book.

Incomplete Without My Brother, Adonis-Kaizer Mabhilidi Nyatsumba 2014-08-16 "We walked on a patch of grass that seemed to have been burnt a few hours earlier, with soot covering our feet. There, in front of us, lay my beloved brother, Adonis, lifeless, his body facing up. There were numerous stab wounds on his body, including his face, and his lumber jacket was half burnt." Thus begins Kaizer Nyatsumba's tragic story of his twin brother's horrible murder. It is also an intriguing look into aspects of South African life hitherto unknown to many. They were twins of a special kind, the closest of friends, and each other's confidantes. Their mothers were sisters, they were inseparable when they grew up, they were the first graduates in the extended family, and were the ones the family depended on for leadership. When Adonis was brutally murdered in the Pretoria area in June 2009, Kaizer was shattered and his life irrevocably changed. A part of him died with Adonis, and he has yet to come fully to terms with the loss. A very private man, the author bares his soul in this book. "This story by the master craftsman, Kaizer Nyatsumba, is so absorbing that it is impossible to stop reading." - Michael Mandl'aButi Mathabela
